Open Doors at WPCS

Foreword

Whitney Point Central School has its doors open a good share of the year to everyone in the Central District. Throughout the school year, some 1390 pupils enter the doors to all the different departments of learning. It is the aim that everyone, upon his departure from the school, will have had the benefit of all its facilities to be used to the best advantage.

There is always an open door in this school to anyone who wants to better himself in basic education, music, shop, athletics, homemaking, agriculture, commercial, and even Adult Education. The students are proud of the fine equipment in such a beautiful school. People of the community have seen the need for adequate equipment for increased enrollment over the last few years. Doors have been opened to two new wings to fit these needs.

As the Class of 1956 graduates, those Seniors who have made up the plans and produced this yearbook, feel assured that future classes will find open doors hereafter for their educational needs. The staff now invites you through the school to observe what the students have done this year.

Alan Schmedicke designed the cover of the 1956 Maroon and Gold. The open door of the WPCS auditorium is a fitting introduction to this year's theme - The Open Doors at Whitney Point Central School.

A NEW WING IS ADDED

Construction of the new $540,000 addition began April 15, 1955. The addition consists of fourteen classrooms, an Industrial Art Shop, an Agricultural Shop, a Cafeteria, a kitchen and a gym extension. This extension should be adequate to handle the school's pupil enrollment for the next five to eight years.

The new Cafeteria will seat five hundred students in small groups at the tables. The new kitchen, which adjoins the cafeteria, is furnished with $20,000 worth of stainless

To The Seniors:

Congratulations on your graduation. This is an achievement of great worth and one of which you can always be proud. Graduation opens for you another door, a door through which you glimpse the opportunities of the future with its challenges, opportunities and goals. Step through the door with a steadfast heart and a firm determination that you will reach the goals ahead. Goals are standards by which one can measure his success and progress, they furnish the dynamic for the long hours of grueling effort which must be done. That is the history of human achievement. You step through a door and see a new goal. You then use this as a handhold to pull yourself to new and higher levels of accomplishment, accomplishments which you may have thought to be impossible. Accept the challenge and may your determination burn with a fierce and steady flame all challenges met, all goals attained.

Standing: Francis Kennedy, Franklin Pendell, Charles Pratt.

Office

Mr. Osmer Brooks is Vice Principal, and Administrative Assistant. This year, he teaches one class of Business Law. He is also Director of the new Adult Education class, started in September 1955.

Miss Virginia Hill, Office Assistant, takes care of all general office work, such as the typing of bills and orders.

She also takes charge of the cafeteria money and helps with the attendance record.

steel equipment. These new rooms and equipment will enable the cafeteria workers to feed 1400 children in  $2\frac{1}{2}$  hours and eliminate the usual rush and hurry apparent in the small cafeteria.

Each classroom is equipped with a sink and drinking fountain. The wall colors in the classrooms are two or more pastel shades, plus eye saver chalk boards. The ceilings are sound proof plaster.

The extension of the gymnasium, with an electric holding door which divides the gym into two separate parts, makes it possible to seat seven hundred spectators. This is an increase of two hundred and fifty from the original seating capacity.

Continued Below

Mrs. Evelyn Storrs, Secretary, handles most of the correspondence and school banking. She also acts as receptionist and telephone operator.

The Industrial Art Shop will be equipped with new tools and machines. A ramp into the shop from the parking lot will enable heavy machinery to be brought into the classroom. The Agricultural Shop, which adjoins the Industrial Art Shop with its machines and tools, will make the equipment more accessible for the students to work on farm machinery.

The old Cafeteria, on the top floor, will be changed into a Commercial Department, second to none in the State, with classrooms and adequate work shops for the year-book and Pointer Weekly.

During the year of 1955-56 the Jr. Class has sponsored three dances, namely, The Ghost Jubilee, Mistletoe Mist, and Cupid's Hop. They held a stationery sale in November which was not necessary for a money raising project, since this is the first class not to go on a Senior Trip. The Juniors are working together on all activities concerning the class mostly for social contact and enjoyment.

The Junior play, Books and Crooks, was presented March 21-23.

The highlight of the whole year's work was the Junior Prom on June 1. This was the first prom to be held in the new enlarged gym.

In Memoriam

Margaret Knowlden (1947-1955)

Margaret was born in Lisle, July 5, 1947; and spent most of her life there. She was an excellent student, who loved to draw and take part in plays presented by her class. At home in Lisle she was a member of the Nature Club at the Lisle Library and of the Associated Church Sunday School. Tap dancing delighted her very much and she thoroughly enjoyed Mrs. Zieter's dancing class. She took part in the dance recital given last June by all of Mrs. Zieter's dancing students. Peggy lost her life as a result of an automobile accident on July 28, 1955.

"Curtain Going Up," a comedy about play rehearsals, was presented by the Senior Class November 16, 17 and 18, under the direction of Miss Marie Scott and Mr. Gregory Halloran. This was an entirely different type of play than what had been previously presented. Many favorable comments were received from the play-going audience. This novel play contributed over $300 to the Senior treasury.

Marjune Neadeau accompanies Boys' Chorus at the 1955 Music Concert.

CHORUS

Without any room to organize or rehearse the choral groups this year, Mrs. Goodwin was only able to establish the Boys' Chorus. The Boys Chorus, consisting of fifth and sixth grade boys, sang at the Baccalaureate exercises, the Christmas assembly and at a P.T.A. Meeting. The Glee Club, consisting of Senior High girls, did not make any public appearances from the Commencement exercises in June 1955, until the 1956 Spring Concert. They are accustomed to sing at special assemblies, such as Easter and Christmas.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

Throughout the school year, 1955-56 the Senior, Junior and Swing Bands have been convening and rehearsing regularly for the coming events of the year. Every year the Senior Band looks forward to playing for The Junior and Senior Plays, the Spring Concert, the Memorial Day Parade, the 2 Halloween Parades, and the basketball and football games. The Swing Band, not quite so socially active, plays for dances after many home basketball games. They are a main attraction at the Spring Concert. Occasionally they play at the P. T. A. meetings. The Junior Band, this winter, has been in the process of rebuilding with many new members. They also looked forward to the Spring Concert. Occasionally the Junior Band plays at grade assemblies.

"No sir, when it comes to pompoms, I say no."

"You're going to march right down to the janitor's, get some turpentine and a brush, and clean that wall. The idea..."

"Books and Crooks," a three-act comedy, was presented by the class of 1957 in the school auditorium, on March 21-22-23. The play was directed by Mr. Joseph Barrett. The audience was carried through the hilarious and exciting events of a couple of days at Alexander Hamilton High School.

Coach Brooks' squad managed to have one good night, downing Oxford, 18-2. Other Point victims were Chenango Forks twice and Cincinnatus. Senior Jim Donnelly was the leading batter with a .314 average. Other Seniors on the squad are Ed Duhlmeier, Lew Tingley, Dave Storrs, Russ Burghardt, Al Reed, Leo Abbott and Bob Lethbridge, while Jerry Hodges, Rex Stahl, and Bob Driscoll will be back.

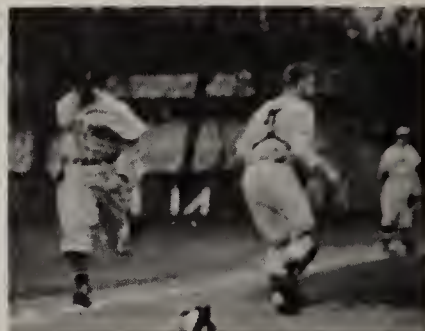

Although the Little Eagles didn't have a highly successful season, winning four and losing eight, they did manage to gain valuable experience for next year. Coach Birmingham's Eaglets managed to stay out of the league cellar by winning three league contests.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

After a slow start in which the Eagles lost their first three encounters, Coach Halloran's boys broke the ice with a 7-7 tie at Sidney. Then, with three straight victories, the Eagles pulled themselves from the Susquenango cellar to a third place tie.

Seniors Ed Barrowcliff and Paul Page, a guard and an end respectively, were elected co-captains. With only five Seniors on the squad, the Eagles gained much valuable experience for next year.

Like their bigger brothers, the Little Eagles finished the season with a .500 average, losing the first three, then rallying to win three straight. After losing to Chenango Forks once and Greene twice, the Eaglets downed Chenango Forks, Chenango Valley and Oxford.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

For the first time in recent years, the Eagles turned in a losing record, seven wins and nine losses. Leaguewise, the Pointmen nabbed third place behind Sherburne and Chenango Forks by winning five and losing an equal number.

Seniors on this year's squad were Jerry Scholes, Robert Driscoll, Jim Kiernan, Gates Cook, Paul Page and David Adams. Juniors Carl Tingley and Bill Freiije and Sophmores Jerry Hodges, Ike Sears and Jim Brown will be back next year. Bill Freiije dislocated his elbow in the Newark Valley game and was unable to finish the season.

For the first time in four years, the Northern Division defeated the Southern Division in the All-Star game. Jerry Hodges and Jim Kiernan represented the local squad.

"Double or nothing."

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Hampered by the lack of experience, the Little Eagles found the going rather rough this year, ekeing out only three victories in sixteen starts. For seven straight league games the Eaglets failed to register a league victory. Then, on February 10, one week before the end of the season, the Eaglets played an entirely different brand of basketball in upsetting a strong Oxford team, 44-37. In the two remaining games the locals gave championship - bound Sherburne a scare before wilting in the closing minutes. The other two victories were over Newark Valley and Windsor in non-league encounters.

Not much doubt about that one.

The girls are picked for their amount of enthusiasm, their skill and motions, conduct, cooperation in school, scholastic average, personality and sportsmanship. These girls, 7 on the Junior Varsity Squad and the other 7 on the Varsity Squad, are present at every football and basketball game. They help to support the teams with school spirit and cheers.

VARSITY TRACK

The Eagle Thinclads had a successful year considering that Coach Halloran's squad consisted of only three Seniors and one Junior. In dual meets the Pointmen defeated Newark Valley, Cincinnatus, Homer and Chenango Forks, while losing to Oxford, Greene and Marathon.

Dave Chichester, a Sophomore, hurled the disk 135' 8" for the Section IV, Class B record. This heave eclipsed Hugh Quail's old record of 118' 11". Other Eagle winners were Carl Tingley, Jack Bailey, Neal Roe, Ike Sears, Jim Brown, Jim Hohn, Jack Slyker, Dave Adams and Jerry Hodges. Seniors were Russ Theleman, Dan Springston, and Art Mills.

The Class of 1955 captured the Intramural Track Meet.
